Senator Lexow moved that the three rapid transit bills be made a special order for this evening. Adopted.

The Sheffield Mayor's bill was the first special order taken up.

Senator Cantor said that this bill should be disposed of upon its merits, saying: "It is too important a matter to be made the subject of party action. It would restore a condition of things that enabled the infamous Tweed fring to plunder the city of New York.

A new era should be inaugurated in municipal reform, and the departments should be sensored from the fields of parts.
